

IN FOCUS : ALSACE

Key Player in Alsace : Domaines Schlumberger

The largest domaine in Alsace, with 138 hectares producing one million bottles a year – half from grand crus. Starting with the 2001 vintage, the young team who direct the estate have totally renovated the equipment in the cellars and much work has been done in the vineyards. They have introduced organic methods and plan to be biodynamic. Each vintage is finer than the last.

Pinot Gris
Grand Cru Kitterlé 2005
★★★★

It's difficult to find a Pinot Gris with such complexity: a great win from a great vineyard. Up to 1515.
