

THE TOP 100 OF 2004

DOMAINES SCHLUMBERGER Riesling Les Princes Abbés 2000 91/100

With 345 acres under vine, the Schlumberger family controls the largest contiguous estate in Alsace. Half of the vineyards are in grands crus sites. The Riesling grapes for this white come from several different parcels on the property. It is fermented in oak, then transferred to stainless steel to retain freshness. Séverine Beydon-Schlumberger, the seventh generation, comanages the estate with her uncle, Alain Beydon-Schlumberger.
